

(T) COOKIES POLICY

TNTech uses cookies to manage the website and improve your overall website experience. Customer's privacy and data security are a top priority, and TNTech is committed to doing its best to protect the information you entrust with it. The text below details what cookies are. From there, set the terms on which TNTech uses your cookies.

1. What are cookies?

Cookies are small data files stored on your device, through your browser, at the request of websites when in use. Cookies are classified into two types (a) and (b) as follows:

(a) Session cookies and Persistent cookies

The cookie duration depends on whether this is a session cookie or a persistent cookie.

Session cookies expire when the browsing session ends.

Persistent cookies are stored on your computer or mobile device for a fixed period of time. When you visit a website, your browser retrieves these cookies so that the website will recognize your device and personalize your website experience according to previous browsing records.

(b) First Party Cookies and Third Party Cookies

We control and set the scope of first-party cookies, but we cannot control third-party cookies. Third-party cookies are operated by third-party websites in a different domain. Some pages of this site contain third-party cookies as embedded content, such as JavaScript and APIs.

2. Why does TNTech use cookies?

We are committed to providing you with convenient, safe and effective accommodation services. To achieve this goal, we use cookies to:

- ensure the effective operation of this website;
- Evaluate how you access and use this website;
- analyze which destinations are popular with visitors;
- determine your eligibility for campaigns and offers;
- recommend places/products/offers that match your interests; and
- Improve website content and enhance user experience.

We guarantee that cookies will not be used for any purpose other than those described here.

3. What types of cookies does TNTech use?

We use 3 types of cookies, specifically "Strictly necessary cookies", "Analytics cookies", and "Advertising cookies". As follows

Strictly necessary cookies: These cookies allow us to manage this website and ensure it functions correctly. This information is essential to help you navigate around the website and improve your browsing experience. If these cookies are disabled, we will not be able to provide you with our services. We also use these cookies for fraud detection and prevention purposes. Furthermore, thanks to these cookies, you do not need to log in multiple times to access different pages once you are logged in to this website.

Analytics cookies: We use analytics cookies including Google Analytics and other analytics tools to collect anonymous statistical information to (1) evaluate how our visitors use this website; (2) understand more about the age and location of our visitors; (3) evaluate how our new products are received by users using the popularity of our marketing campaigns; and (4) enhance this website content and services by customizing this website for you. Based on the anonymous data collected, these analytics tools create trend analysis and compile reports to achieve the above-mentioned purposes.

Advertising cookies: Advertising cookies allow us to limit the number of times you see the same advertisement and to ensure that advertising content is relevant to your interests. These cookies, along with identifiers linked to your IP address, can track your activities across different websites and thus display advertising according to your preferences.

4. Agree to cookies

In most cases, we need your consent to use cookies on this website. Exceptions are cookies that are necessary for us to provide you with a service you have requested or that are necessary for the inherent functionality of the website.

After your first visit to this website, you will see a notification banner at the top of the page informing you of our use of cookies. By continuing to use this website without changing your settings, you agree to receive all cookies and other data tracking tools. On the other hand, if you do not want to accept the use of these cookies, you can modify your cookie settings at any time. For more details, please refer to "How can you manage your consent?".

5. How can customer manage its consent?

You can accept or decline our use of cookies at any time
